POSTOFFICE AT COLUMBIA, MISSOURI—6,000

SEPTEMBER 15, 1935

The present issue, Number 50, concludes the publication of the Law Series. A cumulative index of the whole set, numbers 1 to 50 inclusive, is contained in this issue. Numbers 49 and 50 should be bound in Volume Six with numbers 41 to 48. Additional copies of most issues are available and may be had upon request for the completion of broken sets.

THE MISSOURI LAW REVIEW, as a successor to the Law Series will become the publication of the Law School of the University of Missouri. Upon the recommendation of the Law Faculty, its publication was recently authorized by the Board of Curators. THE REVIEW will assume the size and form common to the leading law reviews of the country and will contain articles of general interest by nationally known writers on legal subjects, as well as materials dealing especially with Missouri law. THE REVIEW will be published quarterly, in November, January, April and June at a subscription price of $2.50 per year.

For further information address THE MISSOURI LAW REVIEW, Lee H. Tate Hall, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri.
