

1927

Letter, 1927-09, Callie Gaines to George L. Gaines; Alludes to health difficulties, possibly of one of Lloyd's siblings, and to possibility of moving from Mississippi to Missouri.

Callie Gaines

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarship.law.missouri.edu/family_correspondence

Part of the Civil Rights and Discrimination Commons, and the Legal History Commons

Recommended Citation

Callie Gaines, Letter, 1927-09, Callie Gaines to George L. Gaines; Alludes to health difficulties, possibly of one of Lloyd's siblings, and to possibility of moving from Mississippi to Missouri. (1927).

Available at: https://scholarship.law.missouri.edu/family_correspondence/1

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Lloyd L. Gaines Digital Collection at University of Missouri School of Law Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Gaines Family Correspondence by an authorized administrator of University of Missouri School of Law Scholarship Repository.

Waterbury Miss
Sept 1927

Mr George Dear son

This comes to let you hear from us all I am at Washack barkers now, and after hearing such distressing statement I came back down here. I got here about dark. That first dark and found mesh and the baby on the gallery and Magelma and not the least indication of what I told them what I heard and they both denied it and Lissie and Bula said it wasnt true. and since I have been here mayshack has done all he can for her

The baby and That is a fall absolutely without a cause as far as I can see. Though it was good that I came that ^{day} which was last Monday for Thursday she had something like a chill and has had a high fever that evening and night Mayshack went to Water Valley yesterday and got her some perotine from Mr Cooper and had her medicine bottles refilled this is the second time he has fill them since I been here he is doing all he can to get her well he bought the baby some castor oil said she

Working off. I ask Magdalena just now about going up there and she won't talk a fact it and I don't want to worry her she has never talk like she wanted to go up there in past

another
Write more next time
E. S. G.

C. S. G. Ains

Mr. George W. Gaines
200 So. Leffingwell Ave
St Louis
Mo.