Acknowledgment to the Law School Foundation

Due to the inability of the University of provide funds for additional publication of the Law Series for the current year, publication of this issue has been financed by the University of Missouri Law School Foundation.

The University of Missouri Law School Foundation was, with the approval of the faculty, incorporated in 1928 by alumni of the Law School. Among its objects is the accumulation of funds, from which, or from the income thereon, worthy projects of benefit to the Law School (and for which the University is not able to provide financial support) may be financed. It has, through the generosity of many alumni of the Law School, established a substantial endowment fund and a small annual fund, and it is hoped that from time to time the alumni will add substantially to each of the funds. The affairs of the Foundation and its finances are managed by a Board of Trustees, elected by the membership. Every person who contributes $100.00 to the endowment fund of the Foundation becomes a member.

The present Board of Trustees consists of the following alumni of the Law School:

Louis V. Stigall, '10
