MISSOURI LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 81 FALL 2016 NUMBER 4

CONTENTS

Symposium: A Future Without the Administrative State?

Exploring the Administrative State.................Erin Morrow Hawley 933

ARTICLES

Early Prerogative and Administrative Power:
A Response to Paul Craig ..........................Philip Hamburger 939

Restoring Chevron’s Domain .........................Jonathan H. Adler 983

Why Bias Challenges to Administrative Adjudication Should Succeed ....................................Kent Barnett 1023

Why Lenity Has No Place in the Income Tax Laws.........................................Andy S. Grewal 1045

Marbury v. Madison and the Concept of Judicial Deference .........................Aditya Bamzai 1057

Without Deference ......................................Jeffrey A. Pojanowski 1075

Toward a Context-Specific Chevron Deference ..................................Christopher J. Walker 1095

Private Complements to Public Governance......................................Emily S. Bremer 1115
NOTES

Statutory Interpretation in Missouri............................ Matthew Davis 1127
An Important Time for the Future of Class
Action Waivers and the Power Struggle
Between Businesses and Consumers ......................... Jack Downing 1151
What’s Missing? Addressing the Inadequate
LGBT Protections in the Missouri Human Rights Act .................................................................... Ellen Henrion 1173
Missouri Campaign Reporting Requirements
in the Shade of Citizens United......................... Benjamin N. Levin 1195
Syntax or Experience:
What Should Determine If Sex Trafficking
Qualifies as a Crime of Violence? ....................... Britteny Pfleger 1215
Evaluating the Special Needs Doctrine in the Context of Higher Education ......................... Ryan Prsha 1241