Table of Contents
“Loss” Revisited:
A Defense of the Centerpiece of the Federal Economic Crime Sentencing
Guideline ............................................................Frank O. Bowman, III 1

Reply to Professor Bowman’s “Loss”
Revisited ..........................................................Daniel S. Guarnera 33

When Teachers Go Viral:
Balancing Institutional Efficacy Against the First Amendment Rights of Public Educators in the Age of Facebook ..............Watt Lesley Black, Jr. 51

Belonging as Intellectual Creation .....................Betsy Rosenblatt 91

Ringing the Bell:
The Right to Counsel and the Interest Convergence Dilemma .................................Lahny R. Silva 133
NOTES

Picking Winners and Losers:
The Subjectivity of Missouri
Disciplinary Decisions.......................................Bradley Craigmyle 169

Slanting Trademark Choices in the Right Direction:
Why Section 2(a) of the Lanham Act
Promotes the Interests of Consumers......................Zachary Kasnetz 191

The “Undue Hardship” Test:
The Dangers of a Subjective Test in Determining the Dischargeability of Student Loan Debt in Bankruptcy.........................Rebekah Keller 211

“A Verdict Worthy of Confidence”:
The Weakening of Brady’s “Materiality”
Requirement in Missouri.....................................Robert Wasserman 241

Instilling Hope:
Suggested Legislative Reform for Missouri
Regarding Juvenile Sentencing Pursuant to Supreme Court Decisions in Miller and Montgomery.......................................................Brooke Wheelwright 267