CONTENTS

SYMPOSIUM

- Colliding Worlds of Dispute Resolution: Towards a Unified Field Theory of ADR .......................................................... David A. Hoffman 11
- Looking Down the Road Less Traveled: Challenges to Persuading the Legal Profession to Define Problems More Humanistically ................................... Nancy A. Welsh 45
- The Evolution of the New Lawyer: How Lawyers are Reshaping the Practice of Law .................................................. Dr. Julie Macfarlane 61
- Collaborative Family Law, the New Lawyer, and Deep Resolution of Divorce-Related Conflicts .................................................. Pauline H. Tesler 83
- The Ethics of Collaborative Law .................................................. Scott R. Peppet 131
- Collaborative Law Practice: An Unbundled Approach to Informed Client Decision Making ........................................ Forrest S. Mosten 163
- Why Should Businesses Hire Settlement Counsel? .......................................................... Kathy A. Bryan 195
- Practical Insights From an Empirical Study of Cooperative Lawyers in Wisconsin .................................................. John Lande 203

COMMENT

- Beyond the Box Score: A Look at Collective Bargaining Agreements in Professional Sports and Their Effect on Competition ........................................ Ryan T. Dryer 267

NOTES

- Rejecting the Intertwining Doctrine: Favoring ADR While Hindering Judicial Efficiency and Economy .................................................. Michael Bekesha 293
- Suing for Small Potatoes: Consumer Class Action Waivers in Arbitration Agreements Distinguished by the Ninth Circuit ........................................ Jaimee Conley 309
- Expanding the Power of U.S. Courts in Private International Arbitration—Moderation Loses to an Extreme .................................................. Amy Moore 321