CONTENTS

SYMPOSIUM

Procedural Justice and the Rule of Law: Fostering Legitimacy in Alternative Dispute Resolution ....................................................... Tom R. Tyler
Legitimacy in Alternative Dispute Resolution .............................................. Rebecca Hollander-Blumoff 1

Alternative Dispute Resolution and the Rule of Law in International Development Cooperation .......................................................... James Michel 21

Alternative Dispute Resolution and the Rule of Law in International Development Cooperation .......................................................... Helga Turku 47

Access to Justice and Alternative Dispute Resolution ........................................... William Davis

Reflections on Designing Governance to Produce the Rule of Law ......................................................... Lisa Blomgren Bingham 67

The Family, the Market, and ADR ........................................................................ Amy J. Cohen

ADR and Transitional Justice as Reconstructing the Rule of Law ......................................................... Michal Alberstein 91

A Deliberative Look at Alternative Dispute Resolution and the Rule of Law ......................................................... Peter Muhlberger 127

Lost in Translation: Can Exporting ADR Harm Rule of Law Development? ......................................................... Cynthia Alkon 145

Comment: Trends and Challenges in Bringing Together ADR and the Rule of Law ......................................................... Stephanie E. Smith 165

NOTES

Dispensing Injustice: Stolt-Nielson and Its Implications ................................................... Nicholas Goodrich 197

A New Twist on an Old Approach: Missouri’s Use of Unconscionability and Consent in the Class Arbitration Waiver Analysis ......................................................... Whitney Hampton 209

De Novo a “No No:” Contractually Expanded Judicial Review Clauses Do Not Preclude FAA Application in State Court Unless the Parties Make it Intentionally Clear The FAA Does Not Apply in Their Agreement ......................................................... Tom Swoboda 239

Published by University of Missouri School of Law Scholarship Repository, 2011